THE IMPERIAL ORDER of THE YELLOW ROSE

---

ORGANIZED, JUNE 11, 1908
CHARTERED, JUNE 15, 1908

The Imperial Military Order of the Yellow Rose

It would appear that before 1805 an order of chivalry was formed in America, known as the Imperial Military Order of the Yellow Rose, and on the scroll of the order the following names are found:

“Viscount de Fronsac, John Milledge, Augusta, Georgia, late Governor; John Irvine Bulloch, Judge Archibald Stobo Bulloch of Savannah, Georgia; Noble Wymberley Jones, M. D., John Glen, Chief Justice of Georgia, Major John Habersham, W. Harden, and J. Maxwell, all of Georgia, and James De Veaux and John Rutledge of South Carolina.”

This order was revived May 11, 1908, by Dr. Joseph Gaston Baillie Bulloch, grandson of John Irvine Bulloch and great grandson of Judge John Glen, and also descended from Dr. Noble Wymberley Jones, the title of Military being left out and the proviso added that none but those of royal descent shall hereafter be admitted into membership in the order. After several meetings and consultations the following constitution was adopted, and application made for a charter, which was granted under the laws of the United States, in the District of Columbia, on the 15th of June, 1908.

Preamble

Whereas all should keep a perfect record of their ancestry in order that future generations may be able to prove whence they came, and also be able to connect their records with others, that a true and authentic history may be compiled and a faithful and accurate account be made of descent from illustrious progenitors, so we, bearing in mind our descent, have formed this order, to be known as the Imperial Order of the Yellow Rose, to be composed of those of royal lineage.

NAME.

This order shall be known as the IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE YELLOW ROSE.

LOCATION.

The location of the order shall be in the city of Washington or wherever the Chief Regent shall reside.

OBJECT.

The object of this order is to unite the descendants of all those of royal descent, male and female, into a body or Order of Chivalry, and is not strictly confined to residents of America only, but to all persons of royal lineage in Europe, America, and elsewhere, and to collect and preserve all genealogical and historical data.

GOVERNMENT.

There shall be a Supreme Council, composed of officers of the order, who shall make the laws for the regulation of the order, and also an officer for each State or country, to be known as a Regent, and the following officers :

Chief Regent,
Vice-Regent,
Herald,
Registrar,
Secretary,
Treasurer,
Marshal,

and such other officers as shall be created by the Chief Regent or Supreme Council.

QUALIFICATION.

All ladies and gentlemen of any country who are of royal lineage and who belong to the Aryan race.

INSIGNIA.

The insignia shall be a golden cinquefoil, whose leaves are indented in the form of a five-armed cross, in the center of which is a black, two-headed Roman eagle. The cinquefoil to be suspended by a dark green ribbon from an imperial crown attached to the cinquefoil or rose.

SEAL.

The seal of the order shall be a shield, in the center of which is a cinquefoil on a dark green field. The shield to have as supporters two lions rampant and as a crest an imperial crown.

ROSETTE.

The rosette shall be a yellow rose with a white five-pointed star in the center.

DUES.

The dues for life membership shall be ten ($10) dollars.

ADMISSION.

Admission to companionship in the order shall be solely through the Chief Regent, except in the case of Great Britain, where admission shall be through the Regent of that country.
